

With his charming and lovable personality and a dreamy view of the world, Momo wins the hearts of his audience in an instant. As a poetic and comic storyteller, he surprises not only his spectators, but sometimes even himself. Always connecting with his audience on eye level, Momo delights with humor, magic, and boundless imagination. His expressive facial expressions and physical comedy recall the great clowns of past eras, giving his performances a unique and highly visual style of comedy. Whether struggling with himself, playfully interacting with a volunteer from the audience, or adding a touch of magic, Momo enchants in his very own fresh, cheeky, and captivating way.

Monsieur Momo, whose real name is Timo Lesniewski, completed his training at the Clown School in Hanover in 2013. Since then, he has been captivating audiences in variety theaters and circus arenas with his humor and distinctive style. Coming from the world of performing arts and cabaret, he now feels equally at home on major stages and has already worked with renowned venues such as Wintergarten Varieté Berlin and Circus-Theater Roncalli. His work has received multiple awards, including the Euskirchen Cabaret Prize, the Paulaner Solo Award, and the Herborner Schlumpeweck.

With more than 90 million views on Instagram, Monsieur Momo now delights audiences all around the world. Known for his special connection with the audience, he is always a guarantee for unforgettable tears of laughter.